President's Report - February 2024

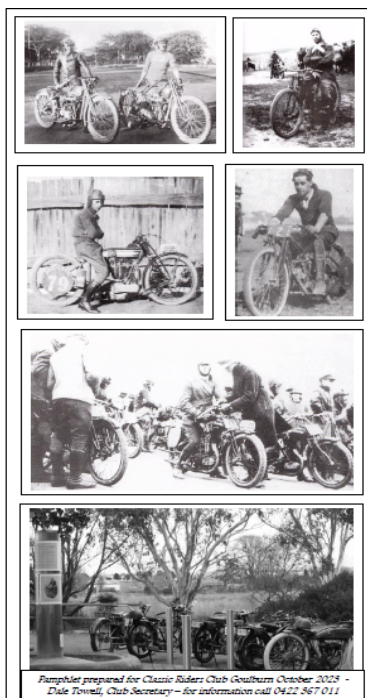

Its hard to believe we are already into February 24, where has the time gone, I guess it is better to be busy and not bored! About a month ago Peter & Karen Drury, my wife Deb and myself took off down the coast to organise the Presidents ride. I would like to point out how difficult it is to get accommodation for thirty people, most towns only have a small number of rooms. Fortunately, we were able to get rooms at Nowra and Queanbeyan. It should be a great weekend.

The club had the usual Sunday and midweek rides with reasonable weather. At the club meeting we had a picture presentation of the first purpose-built racetrack in the world "Brooklands" opened in 1907 at Weybridge England. The museum has a great collection of race bikes, cars, aircraft including a concorde and the national bus museum all in the one location. The club's new projector worked well unfortunately the operator needs a bit more practise driving the machine!

For the next meeting (March) we will have the festival of speed and the presidents ride to report on, and for the April meeting we are preparing a small bike display night.

Duties of the MTMRPC Rally Co-ordinator

MTMRPC Rally 27/28 July 2024

My duties as the Rally Co-Ordinator entails having members in place in a number of positions as early as is possible, starting at the March meeting.

(The existing Committee are all familiar with the procedures regarding filling the positions below). My other duties as Co-ordinator is to keep up with the necessary time frames to ensure that all procedures are in place on the Rally day.

- ▶ Arrival Refreshments. Pre ride snacks.
- ▶ Rally registration and check-in.
- ▶ Parking marshals at check-in.
- ▶ Ride Planners. Ride layout.
- ▶ Ride Marshals. Directing the riders.
- ▶ Rally Judging Crew, sorting out who won what.

The Morning tea at Ebenezer Church was usually organized by Christine and Kevin Offord. The Morning tea is always tea/coffee and Scones and jam.

The Actions below are basically the only actions I undertake independently.

The Lunch at Hillside School was organized by Myself, and my contact is Judy Eastman on 0410 644 502. Judy and I discuss the menu and price to the satisfaction of the committee about 6 weeks or so before the Rally.

The Trophies are supplied by Dave at Pendragon, 13 Doyle Place, Winston Hills, 0408 662 977 email davemorgan059@bigpond.com I email Dave a copy of the classes sheet that the judging coordinators also get and pick the Trophy's up a week or so before the Rally and check them off and deliver them to the Sports Club in the morning of the Rally.

The Dinner is held at Pitt Town Sports Club in their auditorium and the meal is supplied by the Bistro, the contact is UPI or Teagan on 4572 3658 who you would need to contact by say May, they have been notified about the date for 2024. Only the menu needs to be discussed.

Judging Layout at Ebenzer Church, On the Saturday I leave the Sports Club around 8.15/8.30 am to travel to the Church to set up the Rally Judging layout for the morning tea Judging. All the Class notices and voting slips are correct for the 2024 Year, as are the main sheets for the judging Coordinators.

Re-book the Pitt Town Sports Club Auditorium for the following year.

The most important action that I always do, is the Monday after the rally has finished, I BOOK the Pitt Town Sports Club Audatorium for the following year. It is booked for the 2024 Rally dinner.

The Raffle tickets for the Rally and monthly general meetings are usually ordered by me from BSG. Their number is Free call 1800 657 565.

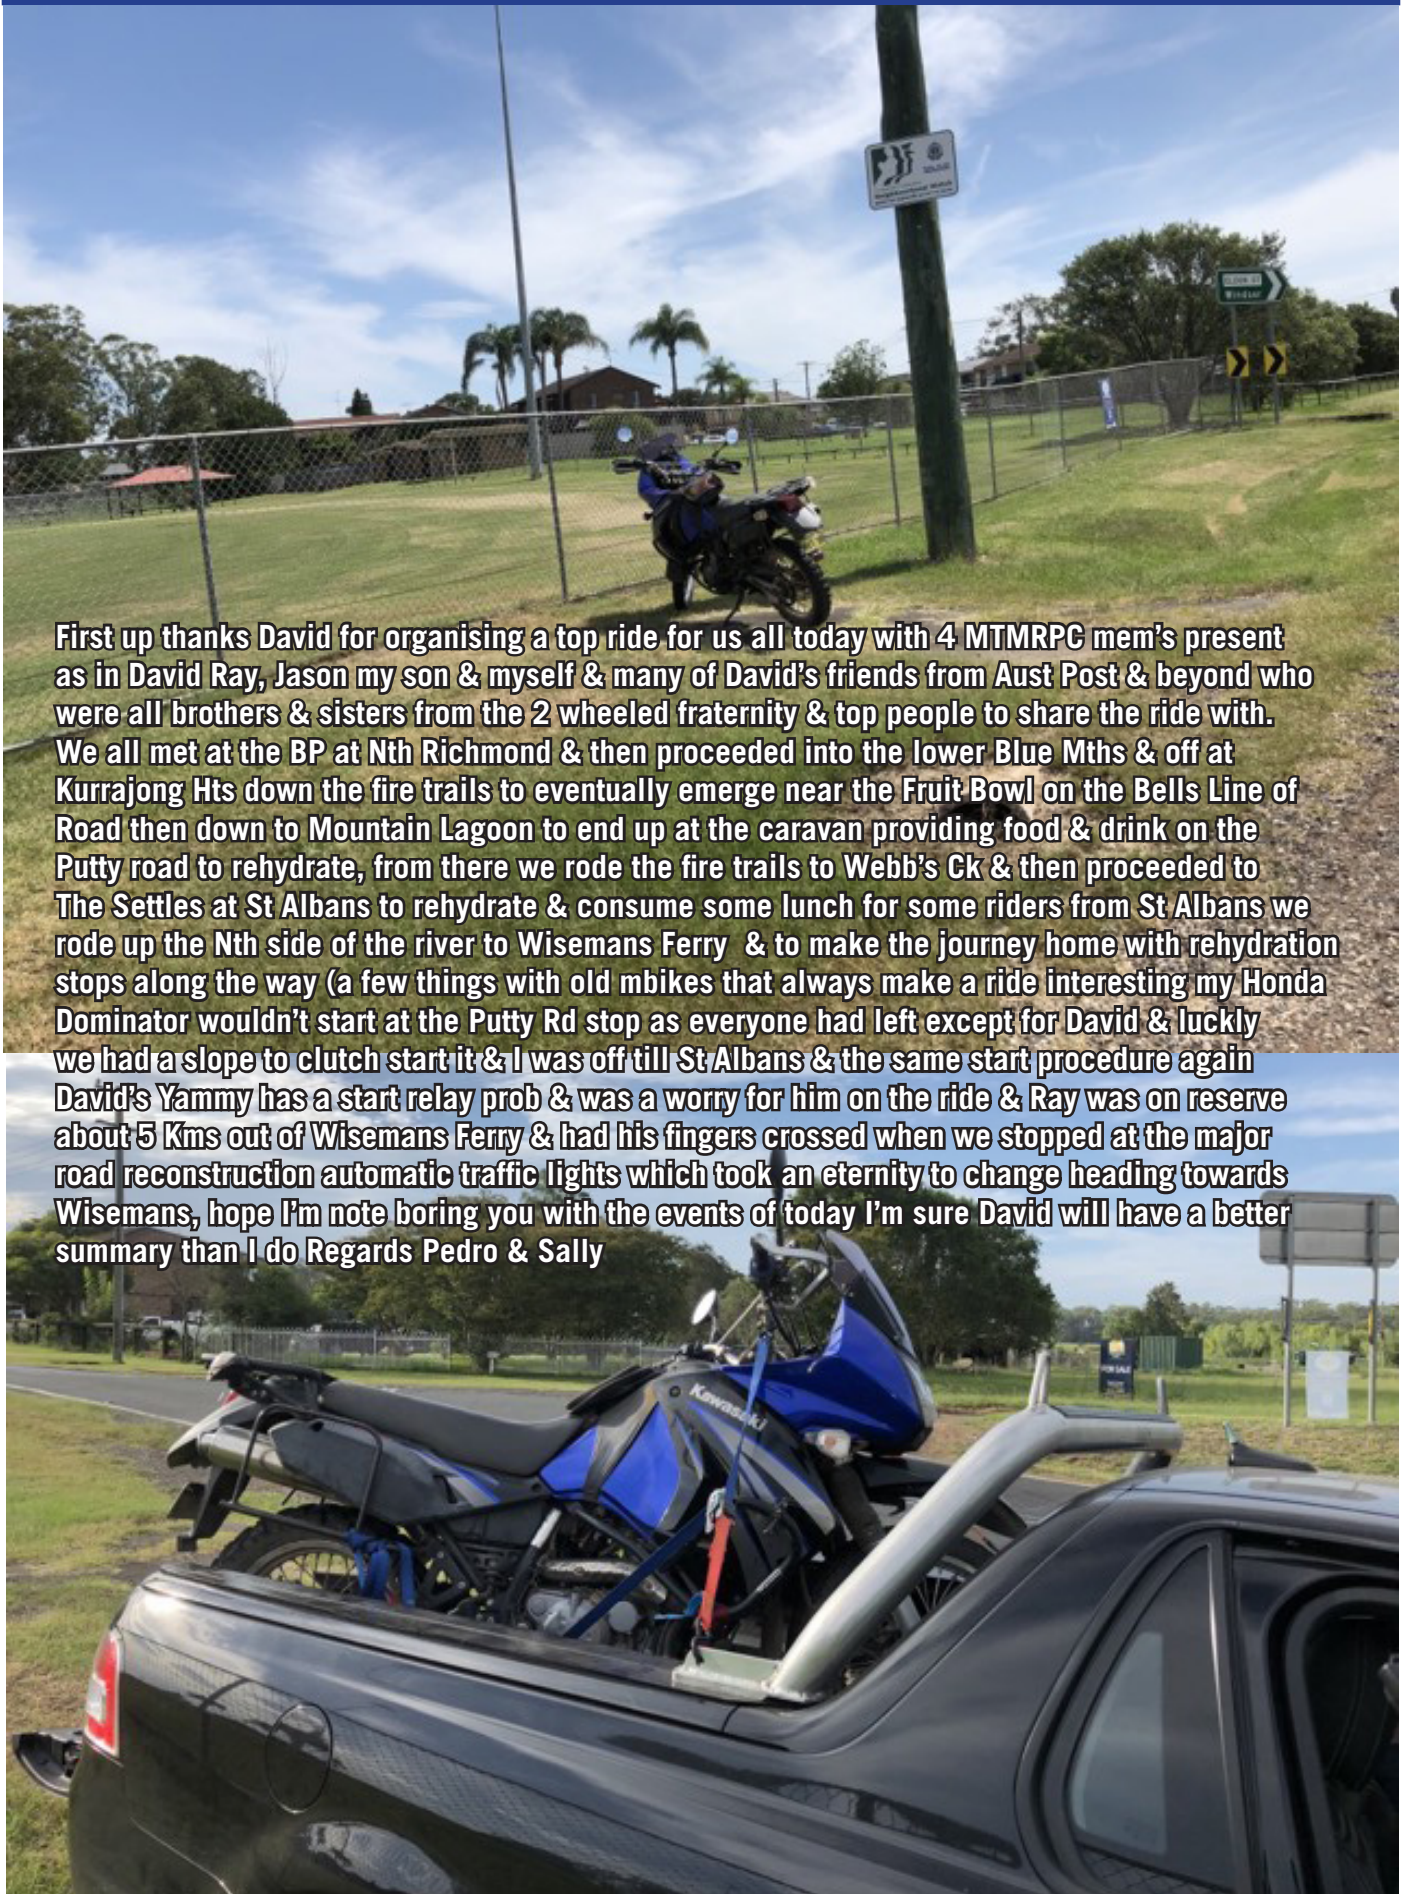

Any Questions please talk to me.

Cheers Garry
